A Christmas Celebration

Christmas is a time of expectation, joy and wonder. It is a time when the world stops for a few minutes and focuses on the message of "Peace On Earth". It is an international celebration that brings young and old together in a way no other event can. It is a time when the dreams of children become the hopes and aspirations of the adult world. It is a time when the impossible becomes reality in the heart and mind.

The 28 selected students from the Fayetteville State University Concert Choir and The Fayetteville State University Choral Ensemble became the new Fayetteville State University Chamber Singers. Their European journey, at the end of the 20th century, took them to France and Belgium, including a performance at the European Parliament. This concert tour, sponsored by Transmusical International of Liege, Belgium, was by invitation and opened new doors for these students and Fayetteville State University.

The music reflects centuries of celebrating the wonders of the Christmas story. Many of the selections reflect the tradition of African-Americans, who created a song to celebrate the birth of a child that was ultimately seen as a liberator. It is the story of Jesus, "born in a manger lo" of Mary and Joseph, far away in Bethlehem on a silent night. His birth brought new light and new hope to all. It is the music of a people who saw Christmas as a time for a deliverer to be born.

Sit back and enjoy the sound of the season of hope, the season of peace and "although it's been said, many times, many ways, Merry Christmas to you."
