God Of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand,
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band,
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before thy throne arise.

II

Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
In this free land by thee our lot is cast;
Be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

III

Refresh thy people on their toil-some way;
Lead us from night to never ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud and praise be ever thine.
A-men.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

American academic attire had its origins in medieval English universities. It was devised to distinguish academic persons such as doctors, licentiates, masters and bachelors from the lay person, in that everyone wore robes or gowns to ward off the cold. The wearing of the gown, hood and cap was adopted by American colleges and universities from this English custom.

The cap, in academic dress, has the same design for all degrees. Mortarboards are generally recommended, although soft square-topped caps are permissible. The tassel that hangs from the center of the cap usually designates the field of study of the wearer. The black tassel is correct for all degrees; however, the gold tassel is worn by doctors.

The gown, unlike the cap, differs considerably in design according to the degree conferred on the wearer. The gown for the Bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves. It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the Master's degree has an oblong sleeve. The sleeve base hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cutaway. The gown may be worn open or closed. The gown for the Doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves. It is faced down the front with black velvet with three bars of the same across the sleeves; or these facings and crossbars may be of velvet of the color distinctive of the subject of which the degree pertains.

The hood for the Bachelor's degree is three feet in length; for the master's degree, three and a half feet in length; and for the Doctor's degree, four feet with panels at the sides. It is lined with the official colors of the university conferring the degree. Also, the discipline of the wearer is indicated by the colors in the hood.

Other colors may be seen in the procession.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Originally, the mace was modeled after war clubs carried into battle by 12th-century officers. Today, it is used as a symbol of authority. Borne by the chief marshal in all university academic processions, the mace was first adopted at Fayetteville State University in 1986 and redesigned in 1989 to reflect the new seal. It will be used for the first time during the 1989 Commencement exercises. The University mace is 40" in length with a cylinder-shaped head cast in hollow brass which bears the university's name, founding year and motto Res Non Verba "Deeds Not Words." Adorning the head is the University seal which was commissioned for the Chancellor's Inauguration in April 1989. Embracing the seal are laurels to mark the spirit of victory. Mounted on two sides and at the top of the cylinder are spiral rings that can be seen on the Alumni Memorial Gates. Supporting the polished brass cylinder is a 13" walnut staff tipped with a 3½" solid brass ball. When unattended, the mace stands in a solid walnut base.

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDALLION

The three-inch Chancellor's Medallion is a gold, cast in bronze, replica of the newly designed seal for Fayetteville State University. The Medallion commemorates the Chancellor's Inauguration and bears his name and the date of installation. As part of the official academic dress for the Chancellor of FSU, it is to be worn at all ceremonial occasions.

The seal shows, at one entrance to the University, the historic Alumni Memorial Gates erected in 1925. Above the gates, the founding year of 1867 is prominently displayed. Between the gates is the Howard School from which the University emerged. An open book depicts the early mission of the University as a teacher preparatory institution and clasped hands inside the book symbolize unity. Within the banner is the University Motto — Res Non Verba, "Deeds, Not Words". The gates are joined at the bottom by laurels to mark the spirit of victory and pine cones to typify the North Carolina landscape. Two lamps of learning adorn the outer edges of the seal and represent the University's mission to impart learning to all who enter.

ALMA MATER

"Old White and Blue"
by Mary T. Eldridge

Our colors so true, Oh Hail, White and Blue!
To thee our voices ring
Tho' seasons may roll, and changes unfold
Thy Praise we'll ever sing.

All honor and love and loyalty
We pledge our hearts anew.
Our Alma Mater F.S.U.
We hail Thee, Old White and Blue.

We cherish each hall, each time honored wall
Each bending tree and bower
Tho' far we may roam, thy spirit leads on
To Victory and power.

With courage and might and majesty
March on old colors true.
Our Alma Mater, F.S.U.
We'll stand by Old White and Blue!
